

2021 Heathmont Photographic Competition and Display.

This is the 7th in the series of local Photographic competitions and displays

'WOMBOLANO PARK'

Wombolano Park in Ringwood East is located on Canterbury Road and occupies 7.5ha (18 acres). The reserve was donated to council in 1954 by Frank L. Walker for the purpose of using it as a public recreation space, and is mostly covered by bushland. The Wombolano Sensory Trail begins at the Rotherwood Avenue carpark and leads through a wetland area. Seasonal ponds can be viewed from several platforms along the trail. In the centre of the park is a playground with lawn area and public toilets.

Wombolano Park is on the outskirts of Heathmont in Ringwood East, approx 2k from Heathmont Station on the north side of Canterbury Road.
