

2018 Heathmont Photographic Competition and Display

This is the fifth in the series of local Photographic competitions and displays

“My Heathmont 3135”

Formerly known as South Ringwood, Heathmont was named in the 1920s when it was orchard area each side of Canterbury Road with Dandenong Creek its southern boundary. From the 1950s Melbourne suburban spread reached the area and it changed from rural to suburban. A village strip shopping centre developed each side of the railway station.

Today, Heathmont is an attractive, leafy suburb with a range of parks, cafes, restaurants, sporting facilities and a considerable amount of urban development.
